Ms. Ruth H. Soucy
Deputy General Counsel
Comptroller of Public Accounts
P.O. Box 13528
Austin, Texas 78711-3528

OR2001-0222

Dear Ms. Soucy:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 143404.

The Comptroller of Public Accounts (the "comptroller") received a request for information regarding audits, both completed and in progress, for the period from July 1, 2000 to the date of the request, November 8, 2000, including the following: name of the taxpayer, taxpayer number, taxpayer address, taxpayer phone number, audit start date, audit completed date, audit period, audit office, auditor number, audit results, SIC code, outlet number, outlet name, and outlet location. You indicate that you have released to the requestor the information responsive to the request, except for information pertaining to pending audits in which the taxpayer has not been notified of the audit. You assert that the information pertaining to these audits is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

We find that your request is answered by our decision in ORL 2000-4762 (2000) (copy enclosed). In that decision, this office found that the precise information at issue in the present request is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108. The only difference is that the current request encompasses audits during the period beginning October 20, 2000, the date of the previous request, and ending on November 8, 2000, the date of the current request. As we stated in our prior ruling:

With regard to future requests to the comptroller for “a list of current sales tax audits” and the responsive information concerns pending audits where the taxpayer has not yet been notified, you may consider this ruling to be a previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code and need not request determinations from this office.

Accordingly, the comptroller may withhold the information at issue in the present request pursuant to the previous determination in ORL 2000-4762 (2000).

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov’t Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body’s intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the General Services Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
